THE WEATHER

Conditions.
The disturbance that was over the lower Mississippi valley Wednesday night moved northeastward and was centered off the middle Atlantic coast Thursday night. It was attended by snow or rain in middle districts east of the Mississippi river.
The indications are that the weather will be generally fair in the eastern states during Friday and Saturday except that local snows are probable in northern New England and northern New York.
Storm warnings are displayed on the Atlantic coast from Savannah to Baltimore, Md.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be strong north to northwest Friday, probably gales diminishing by Friday night; middle Atlantic strong west to north-west, diminishing Friday.
Forecast.
Northern New England: Snow Friday; Saturday cloudy, not much change in temperature.
Southern New England: Partly cloudy Friday and Saturday; not much change in temperature.
Eastern New York: Generally fair south, probably snow flurries north Friday; Saturday partly cloudy; warmer south.

Observations in Norwich.
The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Thursday:

GREENEVILLE

Will Enter Hartford Hospital as In-terne—Dr. James M. Murphy to Begin His Duties On March First.

Dr. James M. Murphy, of 220 Central avenue, has accepted a position as intern at the Hartford hospital and will begin his duties at that institution on March 1.
This position is most sought after by graduates of medical schools and is considered one of the most desirable appointments that could be offered any physician and the fact that Dr. Murphy has been selected for it, from among a long list of applicants, will be gratifying news to his many friends in Norwich.
Mr. Murphy will not be graduated until the coming June, but a vacancy having occurred on the staff of the Hartford hospital he was recommended for it by the dean of Tufts Medical college, and offered the position with the understanding that he would be permitted to graduate with his class at the end of this year. Before entering the Hartford appointment he took the examinations at the Boston City hospital with a choice of service under Dr. Lott. Dr. Murphy is a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy, class of 1911 and is a member of the Alpha Kappa fraternity. Subsequently he took course law at New York Trade school, graduating in the class of 1912. One year later he entered Tufts Medical college of Boston from which institution he will be graduated with his class, which numbers 126 and of which he is class president, in June of this year. Dr. Murphy is a son of Charles O. Murphy of this city.

Mary Pickford in Feature Picture.
Capacity houses crowded the Davis theatre on Thursday afternoon and evening when Mary Pickford appeared on the screen in the big Artcraft feature photoplay, "The Bride of the Clan." It is in seven reels and the scenario lay along the northwest coast of Scotland. Mary carries the role of Margaret MacTavish in her usual faultless style and is seen at her best in this picture of Scottish life. Wonderful scenery and an intensely gripping theme held the close attention of every man, woman and child in the theatre. In addition to this big feature there is a five-part Triangle story The Week-End. The other attractions include Louise Glum, Dorothy Dalton, Margaret Thompson and other well known movie actresses.

Represents New London County.
J. W. Stark has been appointed a member of the executive committee of the Connecticut Fair Association.
Mr. Stark represents New London county. The annual meeting of the association was held Thursday in the rooms of the state board of agriculture at Hartford.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nos- trils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone.
Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no yawning, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness, no struggling for breath at night.
Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream to your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.
It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

Read in Local Churches on Sunday—Nearby Towns Appoint Committees for Military Census.

Late Thursday afternoon the committee in charge of the state of Connecticut military census working in conjunction with the committee on canvassers completed a long list of names of volunteer canvassers who are to look after the taking of the census in the local manufacturing plants. This committee sent to the state committee Thursday night and the committees

The work of arranging the card index and of securing canvassers has been a huge proportion, but nevertheless the committees are making rapid progress.

Local Plan Outlined.
F. H. Ricketson, chairman of the committee on directing the census, has outlined his plan. It consists first in canvassing the local manufacturing plants through the aid of persons contained in the plant rolls. The plan is to the house to house and store and office building canvass the city is to be divided into districts. Between 25 and 30 canvassers will be assigned to each district. The selections made will be of those people familiar with the district which they are to canvass. One captain will be appointed for each district and he will be responsible for the work of the canvassers in his particular district.
There is a serious lack of clerical assistance in arranging the card index and compiling canvassers' names. The entire force of students with the faculty of the commercial school are to work on the indexing and copying Thursday, and many of them worked until late in the afternoon. One hundred office workers who will be volunteer but a part of their time could perfect these lists in a very short time, and it is hoped that the local office workers will be able to do this work and at once volunteer their services.
It is being done in every city.
Town and hamlet. The all state canvassers is no exception.

Scouts Will Assist.
Scout Commissioner Benjamin M.
Bruce has agreed to supply a list of Boy Scouts 1 to 18 years of age who could take the names of those persons remaining after the canvass had been made of the several industries in the even and through hamlets.
They will of course receive commissions from the governor and will do their canvassing commencing at 6 o'clock each day for the next three turned to their homes from their labor.
Late Thursday afternoon Thomas H.
Beckley, chairman of the publicity committee, announced that he has prepared a letter which will be sent out to the heads of various organizations. The letter reads as follows:
Dear Sir:
You are requested to ask the members of your organization to assist the census taker in every possible way.
The actual canvass of the governor's military census will begin in a few weeks. The question blank is published in the newspapers so that the men may know the character of the information required. A ready response is desired from all residents of Norwich. Answering the questions is not difficult knowledge that would be of value to the state. No man will be called upon because of this census for any more than he would be called upon by the government, even though no census had been taken.
Read the questions and be ready to answer.
Respectfully asking your hearty cooperation in extending this notice, I beg to remain,
Yours truly,
THOS. H. BECKLEY, Chairman Publicity Committee.
Letter from the Governor.
Governor Marcus H. Holcomb on Thursday sent a letter addressed to "the churches of the state of Connecticut" in relation to the military census now being energetically conducted in every town and hamlet in the state.

The letter, it is expected, will be read in all churches next Sunday.
The full text of the letter follows:
"To the Churches of the State of Connecticut: Greeting.
"Our country stands today face to face with the possibility that it may be forced to become a party to the great struggle which is raging in Europe. Our president has striven mightily to avert this catastrophe and, to that end, has left nothing undone which he might in honor do. It is my earnest hope, as it must be that of all right-thinking people, that we may yet escape what we would be blind were we did not recognize the dread possibilities in our situation, and we would be false to the responsibilities which belong to us if we did not face honestly the future and do what each of us can to prepare against whatever need may arise.
"Regarding the responsibility which rests upon me as governor, I have sought from the legislature permission to have made an examination of the resources of the state in men and material, available in the event of war.
The first step involves the gathering of information as to the number of men in the state whose services might be made useful, not necessarily in the army, but in all the occupations which are necessary to the life of the state.
Because I recognize that the churches of Connecticut count among their members and attendants the people whose influence as a whole can perhaps do more than that of any other body of its citizens, I have decided to make a direct appeal to you to assist in this work.
"I ask that no man shall prove unwilling to give the information which may be asked of him; I ask that all men and women who may use their influence to make easy and complete its gathering; I ask that any men who are so situated that they can for their services, I have never lost faith in the patriotism of the people of Connecticut, and the response which has been made to the call which has been issued has justified my faith; but I hope that as the days go on the willingness of all our people to join together in the common undertaking of making ready against what ever fate the future may hold will become even greater.
"I forget not that our God is still the God of our fathers, the Prince of Peace; I would have the earnest prayers of all directed to the maintenance of peace; I would have all our hearts turned to the author of the fullest measure of Divine guidance.
But, as I believe that this country has been called to perform in the world, so I believe that it is the duty of every one who claims citizenship in it to so act that its destiny shall not be stayed."

Nearby Towns Are Active.
The towns of Lebanon, Voluntown and Franklin have begun the military census.
In Lebanon, First Selectman Karl F.
Bishop has appointed the following aides: Fred O. Brown, James A.
Thomas, William G. Thomas, James A.
Randall, and table are now in use.
In the parlor a "Moose" bordering was used in the papering and a number of large pictures have been hung.
Comfort Circle Meeting.
Comfort Circle of the King's Daughters met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Howard Adams of West Main street as the leader. Mrs.
A. T. Utley, came to Norwich from Neptune Park to preside at the meeting.

Census Notes.
The census is only to collect knowledge that would be of use to the state.
Read the blank. It will save much time for the census taker.
Two extra telephones have been installed in the Chamber of Commerce Room, at the request of the census telephone company for the use of the committees in charge of the census.
The Chamber of Commerce room is a busy place these days.
A fireproof and burglarproof vault which was destroyed by fire in 1914, millions of dollars of the assets of a great insurance corporation now protects all the results thus far collected in the Connecticut military census.

RED CROSS WORK OF DISTINCT CLASS

Will Confine Its Attention to Caring Strictly For That Line.

The secretary of the local Red Cross, Mrs. Robert W. Perkins, has received a copy of the letter sent to all of the governments of the world in the Union, by Eliot Wadsworth, the chairman of the Red Cross. The letter reads as follows:
February 10, 1917.
My dear Governor: As you are the chairman of the State Red Cross board you may be surprised that I should write you regarding the Red Cross work which we are doing in the way of preparedness as a direct result of the present international situation.
We were so overwhelmed with work at the beginning of this week that it was not possible to get a letter off.
I wish to write now as simply as report what has been done.
Last Saturday, February 3, a telegram, copy of which is inclosed, went to every chapter throughout the country. The chapters have responded in a most remarkable way and the Red Cross is now being organized in every city and towns have looked forward to what their duties will be in case the need arises and have taken steps to organize to meet the need. The Red Cross relies almost entirely on volunteer labor and it has been a great satisfaction to see the type of men and women who have since come forward to serve on the different committees. It is evident that we can rely on the best of the people support from the leading business interests and the women's organizations as well.
Comel Kean is completing as rapidly as possible the organization and equipment of base hospitals, both army and navy, which we have had in charge for the past year. Several new ones have already been undertaken by communities which did not feel before.
Miss Delano's nursing organization is always in splendid trim for emergencies, but in any such emergency as this the numbers of nurses who wish to comply with our requirements and enroll under the Red Cross to be

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

IF LITTLE STOMACH IS SOUR, LIVER TORPID OR BOWELS
CLOGGED.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs" because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, obedient child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sug-gish and stomach disorders result.
When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated; then give this delicious "Fruit Laxative." Children love it, in the end it does not cause injury. No reference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.
Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then compare it with the one that is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size.
Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

ready for call always increases rapidly.

There is one thing which you can do which may prove of material advantage should the Red Cross be called upon to carry out its duties in the event of a real trouble, namely, to discourage the formation of new distinct organizations among the many and varied societies and clubs which exist in this country. The work of the Red Cross must be done by very distinct class and it will confine its attention strictly to caring for that work. The great service that every organization can give to the local Red Cross chapters, build them up in personnel, and strengthen and encourage each community and if they are called in large numbers, first, for training, and, afterward, for service. I am sure that the word you along this line would be most helpful.

The state boards are emergency organization and at the time this letter is written there is no actual emergency. Even should the "over act" of which we read so much take place wherever the time to come to make actual work to do for troops until the federal government has created these troops. We are not waiting, however, for that time to come to make general preparations and I write this letter to keep you informed and in the hope that you will give us the preliminary assistance outlined above.
Most sincerely yours,
ELIOT WADSWORTH,
Acting Chairman.

A mass meeting was held in the Taftville Social club rooms Monday evening, when matters relative to the British-American relief war fund were discussed. President Robert Walker presided. The meeting was a success.
Action from the New York headquarters was read and accepted. Plans were formulated for holding a supper in the near future for the benefit of the fund. A. Bardsley and W. White head were elected to the committee in charge of the relief fund in this place.
